I am the bric brac and book treasures in boutique stores.
I am pop-ins in grande homes at tea time with tips and advice.
I am glorious sea, city and bay views.
I am the comfortable kitten foster home until forever homes are found.

I am Durban Agent, Norah Lane.

Hi, I am Norah Lane and I have been with Pam Golding Properties since 2003. I am a fully qualified Estate Agent and hold an NQF4 in Real Estate plus a Legal Secretarial Diploma. Prior to my career as an estate agent I was a Conveyancing Secretary. This has provided me with invaluable experience which enables me to ensure a smooth transfer process. Get in touch and let's discuss how I can help you with your property requirements.

I work in Durban, specialising in residential sales of houses, townhouses and flats in the suburbs of Morningside, Essenwood, Musgrave, Glenwood and Berea. Living and working in these areas for over 28 years has equipped me with an in-depth understanding of the property market in these suburbs, with an up to date knowledge of the most current inventory to provide to my clients.

I take pride in listening to my client's desires and needs, and will guide them through the transaction process from start to finish, and beyond. My hard work and commitment has awarded me with the prestigious GoldClub Status for service excellence and exceptional property sales, whilst exhibiting the highest level of professionalism. I have held the title Agent of the Year in our office for 7 years.

My large client network generates repeat business and sends me referrals on a regular basis. My continued client loyalty is the result of the high service levels I offer. My clients often contact me for advice or assistance long after the transfer of their property, even if it's just to recommend a pool or garden service company. In my spare time I enjoy assisting with animal welfare organisations, traveling abroad (if I can find the time), gardening, sewing and the arts.

"So I know I thanked you but almost two years later I'm sending a huge thanks once again!! Your professionalism is outstanding."
