Hello, I am Jeanine and I have been with Pam Golding Properties, Franschhoek, for the past 9 years. I specialise in many aspects of the real estate environment including lifestyle, agriculture, residential, commercial and sectional title. My expertise lie in property sales of the Franschhoek Village, complimented by a proven success record.

Having lived in the Franschhoek Valley for the past 21 years, I have a wealth of knowledge combined with family history dating back to 1965 in the village. It brings me great pleasure in sharing my insights of the area to prospective clients. Franschhoek is one of the oldest towns in South Africa dating back to 1688 when 176 French Huguenot refugees were given land by the Dutch government in a valley called Olifantshoek ("Elephants Corner"). The village was so named because elephants used to cross into the village to calve. Many settlers named their farms after the areas in France from where they came, eg La Motte, La Cotte, Champagne, La Provence to name a few.

I am very blessed to have been involved with the marketing and sales of many of these buildings and farms. I am an energetic, dedicated and trustworthy agent who has achieved Top Agent throughout my real estate career. My hard work and dedication has been rewarded with Emerald Circle and Gold Club Membership, acknowledging me as one of the top achievers with Pam Golding Properties. I believe in continued education in real estate matters, active involvement in our community, mutual respect and trust; making me a top agent!

I love nature and outdoor activities, going on adventure traveling from sailing a dhow in Madagascar, to the flashing lights of New York. I appreciate my indigenous garden, hiking or trail horse riding.
