I am Durban Agent, Denis Jones.

Hi there, my name is Denis Jones and I have been in the property industry since 2001. I have serviced the Berea, Glenwood, Manor Gardens, Morningside, Glenmore, Carrington Heights and Umbilo areas exclusively during this period. I pride myself on being professional, hardworking and sincere at all times. I strive to always take into consideration my client's needs and wants when assisting them. Please do get in touch and let's discuss your property requirements.

I have been in real estate for many years and hold the Estate Agency Affairs Board Exam, EAAB Certificate of Professional Recognition, exemption from the NQF4 exam and have attended many lectures, given by industry professionals and legal experts such as David Knox an Acknowledged Real Estate Expert and South Africa's own property legal expert and Professor Henk Delport. I come from a banking and financial background and have worked in the roofing industry prior to becoming involved in real estate which was a welcomed change.

For me, the real highlights have been, being in the position to provide young couples and families with a pleasurable and stress-free experience in purchasing, "the home of their dreams." One particular occasion comes to mind, when a couple and their elderly parents bought a property through me. They viewed the property and instantly, fell in love with it and could not wait, to move into their new home.

The family complemented me, on the quality of service they had received, by going the extra mile, during the selling process. I will always strive to uphold this great company's name as I keep in mind I not only myself as an agent but my amazing company as well. When I am not working, you will find me relaxing, enjoying a cup of coffee at various coffee venues or taking a stroll along the Durban's beach promenade. So join me and let us talk, about your requirements, regarding buying or selling a property!

"It truly was a pleasure doing business with you and your company. You really handled our purchase super professionally, always pleasant and with a smile. I have already given your details to family and friends who are looking to purchase a home. You are a great asset to your company and my family and i wish many more successes in leaps and bounds. Thanking you once again."
