I am Parklands Agent, Lyndle Botha.

Hello my name is Lyndle, I specialise in residential Real Estate in Parklands Cape Town. I'm a hard working, energetic and down to earth agent and I take pride in delivering a personalised service to all of my clients, real estate is about more than just selling houses, its about finding family homes, starting new journeys, creating memories and protecting wealth with investments.

If you are in the market to purchase or sell property it is essential that you find a real estate agent that is in line with your ideals. I hold a NQF Level 4 Real Estate qualification, I give a personalised service to each and every one of my clients and you can rest assured that I will give 110% in everything I do.

When I'm not working I love spending time with my friends and family, I enjoy staying active, going on hikes, doing zumba, swimming, cooking, baking, in addition I have a passion for art, and enjoy exploring my creativity in painting and drawing.

If you are in the market to buy or sell please feel free to make contact with me.
