Agent Judy Njogu

Hello, my name is Judy Njogu, I joined Pam Golding as an rentals specialist for Kileleshwa

I have about a year experience in real estate as a manager and team leader in sales.

I also have sales and marketing experience of over 10 years, mainly in the motor vehicle industry. I am a car enthusiast and you will never miss me at the Concours d' elegance, held annually at the Ngong Racecourse.

I love travelling, experiencing new places and playing golf during my free time but most of all I am a mother, home with my kids is where you'll find me, most of the time.

What do I like about real estate? The smile of satisfaction on my clients' faces when I get them a home that perfectly suits their needs!
