

I am Theo Theocharides

Hello, I am Theo Theocharides and I have joined the Pam Golding Properties team in Century City as a property consultant.

I am currently an intern agent, working towards becoming a full status agent. My past qualifications include a National Diploma in Art and Design (Hons).

The greatest achievement in my property career to date is that I sold 10 properties over 3 months. I believe this is due to the fact that I work hard to become the 'top-of-mind' agent in my area by gaining in-depth knowledge of the market trends in my suburb.

I strive to always be there for my clients, committed to assisting them with their property needs and ensuring that both buyers and sellers always get informed, professional service. It gives me great joy to help people realize their property dreams.

In my spare time I listen to selective music, cook Mediterranean dishes and entertain friends and family. Whenever I can, I enjoy traveling and discovering new places.

I look forward to getting in touch and discussing how I can help you with your property requirements in Century City.
