

Selling or buying a home?

29 June 2017

Everyone experiences moving home differently, which is why a little TLC can go a long way...

From understanding the true market related value of your home to the legal and administrative processes along the way, we at Pam Golding Properties believe that each of our clients deserves a real estate service they can rely on, to ensure peace of mind during one of life's biggest milestones.

We believe that our 40 year legacy in real estate enables us to partner with you, offering earnest guidance, a sound knowledge of the property trends in your specific suburb as well as wisdom and care in order to relieve the stresses so often associated with buying and selling property.

A little TLC goes a long way...

Trust

At the end of the day, we want you to feel like you have enjoyed a unique property experience with Pam Golding Properties. It all begins with entrusting us with the sale of your home, one of your most precious assets. We understand the personal nuances that are integral in concluding successful property transactions and provide our clients with the necessary professionalism and care which they deserve. Trusting us with your most valuable asset means we'll ensure that your expectations are sensitively and expertly managed.

Loyalty

To quote Pam Golding, "It is so little about the bricks and mortar and all about the people". Our real competitive advantage is the loyal service culture of our agents, who build lasting relationships with their clients and provide sound property advice. They have the experience to help you set up a tailored marketing plan for the sale of your home by reviewing the current property market in your area as well as being mindful of your financial requirements from the sale of your home. And if you're looking for a new property, they can refer you to a Pam Golding Properties area specialist in your suburb of choice, who will be able to assist you to find the perfect property.

Commitment

Our Pam Golding Properties agents are committed to using the latest data insights on a suburb and a sound knowledge of property trends in the area to assist sellers to get the best price for their home. We also have a comprehensive database of potential buyers and our carefully balanced mix of digital and traditional media ensures your property reaches the right potential buyers at the right time.
